Howard Roffman is applying for the Patrick Wilson Scholarship in Law at Vanderbilt. It is awarded to 4 or 5 only and I presume with local preferences. Because this is on Bud's turf, would you ask him, when there is the opportunity, if there is any way in which he can help? Howard is more than just worthy. He is in every sense exceptional. His father is a Sears drapery salesman, so there is no family wealth. And I do think he will make an unusually fine lawyer. He has served a fine apprenticeship in evidance, professional ethics and many other aspects already, from the work he began when he was in high school. He is now a senior at Penn, on a full scholarhip and maintaining a 4. average while engaged in all his other pursuits. His book will appear this fall. Thanks HW 1/19/74
